Applications for Membership should be addressed by letter to the Secretary, Royal Economic Society, The Marshall Library, Sidgwick Avenue, Cambridge CB3 9DB, England. The Annual Subscription is five pounds. Those joining the Society below the age of 25 shall, for the first three years of their membership, pay an annual subscription of three pounds. Those who have been Members for more than twenty years and are retired from full-time employment may on application pay an annual subscription of two pounds fifty new pence. Any Member may compound for his future annual subscriptions by paying at once the sum of seventy-five pounds, subject, in the case of members who have already paid ten annual subscriptions, to a reduction of eighty new pence in respect of every year for which such annual subscription has been paid, provided that the composition fee does not fall below sixty pounds. There is no entrance fee.

Members of the Royal Economic Society are entitled to receive a free copy of each issue of the ECONOMIC JOURNAL and to buy on special terms one copy of any books published for the Society. They will also be qualified to take part in other activities organised by the Society.

ROYAL ECONOMIC SOCIETY

CORRESPONDENTS:

Professor Bertil Ohlin for Sweden
(University of Stockholm).

Professor V. K. R. V. Rao for India
(University of Delhi).

The Royal Economic Society (incorporated by Royal Charter, 1902) was founded, under the name of the British Economic Association, at a meeting held at University College, London, on November 20th, 1890, the Right Hon. G. J. Goschen, M.P. (the late Viscount Goschen), in the Chair.

The Society has for its object the general advancement of economic knowledge.

The Journal of the Society, published quarterly by Messrs. Macmillan and Co., Ltd., London, and sent post free to Members, is intended to represent the various shades of economic opinion, and to be the organ, not of one school of economists, but of all. The Journal numbers among its contributors the leading economists of all countries. Members are entitled, in addition to the Journal, to copies of sundry other publications issued by the Society from time to time.

By arrangement with the London School of Economics, Members of the Royal Economic Society may obtain from the Secretary a card entitling them to receive, on certain conditions, a permit to use the valuable library of that Institution.
